I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of May [sic] 1818 and that I have not since that time by gift, sale or in any manner, disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land & Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War passed on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not nor has any person in trust for me any property or securities contracts or debts due to me, nor have I any income other than what is contained in the schedule hereto annexed and by me subscribed. That since the 18th day of March 1818 no Changes have been made in my property other than those produced by the natural death, or birth of stock or the slaughter of it for use or the natural wear or accidental destruction of household & kitchen furniture. And a deed of trust executed by me conveying a small tract of land to Dabney M Wharton in trust to secure a debt due to Richard Davis & which deed bears date on the 28 day of May 1828 and is of record in the County Court of Bedford That I have heretofore been in the habit of supporting myself by coopering and doing work as a rough carpenter but that owing to my age & infirmities I am now unable to support myself in that or in any other way That my family who live with me consists of my wife, and two daughters, one of which daughters is about seven and the other but about three years of age and that from my reduced circumstances in life stand in need of the assistance of my country for support. State of Virginia, Corporation of Lynchburg to wit;

On this 20th day of December 1832 before me, the subscriber, a justice of the peace for the said Corporation, personally appeared Joseph Crews who on his oath declares that he is the same person who formerly belonged to the company commanded by Captain Nicholas Cabell in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Edward Carrington in the service of the United States; that he is informed, and believed that his name was placed on the Pension roll of the State of Virginia on the 28th day of July 1832, and that a certificate of that fact, under the signature, and seal of the Secretary of War was forwarded to him by mail directed to Davis's Store, Bedford County, Virginia, but that said Certificate has never come to the Hands, or Possession of him, the said declarant, but has by some means been lost – and he now wishes to obtain one.

NOTES:

Gwynn Island at the mouth of Piankatank River was the site of a battle on 10 July 1776. Craney Island is now in the City of Portsmouth.

On 31 July 1855 Nancy Crews, 66, applied for bounty land stating that as Nancy Eubank she married Joseph Crews on 4 Jan 1820 in Bedford County, and he died there on 26 May 1843. On 14 Oct 1858 she applied for a pension, giving her age as 67 and the date of marriage as 4 Jan 1822. The file includes a copy of a bond signed on 4 Jan 1822 by Joseph Crews and Charles Wright for the marriage of Crews to Nancy Eubank.

On 3 May 1866 Nancy Crews, about 75 and "totally blind and very deaf," applied for the restoration of her pension, which was suspended during the Civil War, during which time she was "dependent upon her relations and friends."
