Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris.

State of Illinois } SS. Coles County }

On this 2nd day of June 1834 personally appeared in open court before Isaac Lewis Andrew Clark and James S. Martin Esqr's. County commissioners in & for the County & State aforesaid in County Commissioners Court Sitting at the Court house in Charleston Joseph Frost a resident of Coles County and State of Illinois aged eighty years six months and nineteen days who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832

That he entered the Service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated

He states that he was born in the year 1753 in Amherst County and State of Virginia He states that he has no other record evidence of his age than a Memorandum thereof which he has at home on a piece of paper. He states that he was living in Amherst County Virginia when he first entered the Service of the United States. He lived since the revolutionary war in Washington County Virginia until 1834. He now lives in Coles Cy Ills. He entered the service as a Volunteer under Col. Joseph Cabbell [sic: Samuel Jordan Cabell] and was marched down to Williamsburg where he was taken sick & was hauled home in a waggon but at what time he entered the Service under Col. Cabbel he does not recollect. He recollects that he went down to Williamsburg with two companies one under the Command of Capt. Higginbottom [sic: Samuel Higginbotham] and the other under the Command of Nicholas Cabbel [sic: Nicholas Cabell] He believes that he served in this expedition at least four months before he was taken home as aforesaid Saith that he knows of no regular officers who were at Williamsburg at that time. He states that he was verbally discharged as he has understood for he states that he was so unwell that he knew not the time when they placed him in the waggon to carry him home

He states that he next (and while a citizen of Amherst County virginia) was drafted to serve a three months tour of duty and was marched down to Richmond in Virginia where he remained in service according to the best of his present recollection three months & was then verbally discharged & sent home but at what time this service took place he does not recollect further than that it was in the time of the Revolutionary War He recollects that he was in this service commanded by Charles Talliaferro or Tolliver as they called him [sic: Charles Taliaferro] but what his rank was this declarant does not know He recollects that while on this expedition he was stationed part of his time at Richmond and part thereof at Rocket's landing [sic: Rocketts Landing] about a mile or thereabouts below He recollects nothing of any Regulars being stationed at Richmond or Rocket's landing while he was there he can therefore recollect nothing of the regular officers if there were any there

He states that he was in no engagement or battle while in the above mentioned campaigns. He afterwards Volunteered and went out under the command of Col. Wm Cock [William Cock] against the Cherokee indians and fought the indians at the Long-island flatts on Holstine river [sic: Battle of Long Island Flats on Holston River at present Kingsport TN, 20 Jul 1776] Immediately after which understanding that the indians were committing depredation on the Watauga Settlement. He marched there & remained guarding the inhabitants three or four weeks. He then marched to Bedford County in Virginia where he was employed in the service of the United States at the publick exceptore in purchasing beeves for the use of the army which was then forming to march to the Long Islands on Holstein river. He then went back with the army to the Long islands with a drove of beeves and was then permitted to go home after having been in service between three & four months in this last mentioned campaign. He does not recollect the time when this expedition took place

He recollects very well all of the above named campaigns were in the time of the revolutionary war He was a citizen of Amherst County at the time of entering the service – in this last mentioned campaign But the Militia of Amherst County were not then called out and the reason why this declarant became engaged in the service was he a little while before had went on a visit to one of his brothers then living in Bedford County Virginia when he engaged in the service in this last named campaign. This declarant further states that he has no documentary evidence of his services that he knows of no person whose testimony he can obtain by whome he can prove the above services he further states John Parker & [blank] are persons living in his neighbourhood and who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a soldier of the Revolution

he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of the agency of any state

Sworn to & subscribed the day and year aforesaid
