[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Georgia, Clarke County

On this 20th day of November, personally appeared in open court, before Charles Dougherty, presiding Judge of the Superior Court of said County, now sitting, William Hodge, a resident of the county of Madison and State aforesaid, aged 70 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as herein stated: ¹

He was born on the 1st April 1762 in York County, Pennsylvania. His father kept the record of his children's ages in a family Bible, which was so worn out that he had the ages copied upon a paper which deponent has & excepting which he has no other record. He was living in 96 district South Carolina & lived there till 1790, whence he removed to Georgia where he has lived ever since & where he now lives in Madison County of said State. He volunteered at 16 in & about the month of May 1778 & marched under the command of Capt. John Hayles [sic, John Hayes] in South Carolina Ninety Six District to Packet [sic, Pacolet River] River before the surrender of Charleston from thence he marched down near Charleston to Bacon's bridge on Eddisto [sic, Edisto River]. About the 6th or 7th of October 1780 he served another tour as a volunteer under Genl Brannon [sic, then Col. Thomas Brandon], Col. Farr [William Farr] & Capt. John Thompson. They ranged about through the district but was in no engagement. In the winter Genl Morgan [Daniel Morgan] arrived on the Pacolet river in Ninety six district. Having heard of about 300 Tories being at Hammond's store [Battle of Hammond's Store], Col.

¹ The War Department promulgated regulations governing pension application format and requiring the following 7 interrogatories to be put to each applicant for a pension. The veteran's application appears to be answering these questions in their order.

¹st Where and in what year were you born?

^{2&}lt;sup>nd</sup> Have you any record of your age and if so where is it?

^{3&}lt;sup>rd</sup> Where were you living when called into service: where have you lived since the Revolutionary War and where do you now live?

^{4&}lt;sup>th</sup> How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer or were you a substitute, and if a substitute, for whom?

^{5&}lt;sup>th</sup> State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such Continental and militia regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

^{6&}lt;sup>th</sup> Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it? 7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief in your services as a soldier in the revolution.

² December 29, 1780:

Washington [William Washington] & Lieut. Lusk with about 100 men & a few militia went & took part of the Tories prisoners & their baggage waggons & returned back to Genl Morgan at Grendol Shoals [sic, Grindal Shoals] & give up the prisoners. In January 1781 Morgan marched up to the Cowpens near the line of North Carolina & there prepared for battle, on the 16th of the same month & year above mentioned Capt. Thompson & his company joined Morgan & on the 17th we had an engagement³ where Col. Washington & a few us run the British to old Gaudilocks & then returned back to Morgan. During the engagement he was slightly wounded & left to take care of the wounded. He was sent to Morgan in North Carolina at the Island ford to know what to do from whence Morgan sent him back with a flag in the Spring & there he enlisted for ten months under Capt. Jacob Barnett & from thence marched down to the Congaree [River] to Friday's Ferry near to the place where Columbia now stands & their joined Genl Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] & Col. Hampton & from thence they marched down & met the army under Brandon & Marion at Thompson fort⁴ on the Congaree, took the fort & from thence they went on & took Orangeburg, from thence they returned back towards North Carolina where deponent was taken sick & left the army nor did not join it, till the battle of Eutaw Springs⁵ & from thence they marched to Orangeburg & from thence to the Four Holes bridge on Edisto & remained there till they were discharged to go home. In the Spring of 1782 deponent volunteered & went down towards Charleston with an officer whose name he does not recollect, from Camden district, & joined Genl Wm. Henderson [William Henderson]. From thence he was sent to Genl. Huger [Isaac Huger] to be his life guard & was there wounded by a musket ball in his shoulder & has got the ball there yet & was afterwards discharged by Genl Huger after having served in all upwards of two years & six months. He mentions the names of M. W. Dobbins & A. L. Clayton who can testify as to his veracity & their belief of his services as a Revolutionary soldier.

As additional proof of this deponents being a Revolutionary soldier, he begs leave to refer to a statement of facts, some of which he has stated above, which was made out by this deponent several years ago, & at that time, he never for one moment believed that he should ever have it in his power to obtain a pension from his country, & when he would have had no motive for deception.

He would mention that some of the minor facts related in his narrative hereunto attached did not come under his immediate observation but he was informed of them by the soldiers with whom he associated, with the exceptions of those, & some corrections, which this deponent has made upon the papers. The balance came immediately under his observation & which this deponent swears are true.

This deponent attaches the only documentary testimony he now has in his possession, which are writings from under the hands of Daniel Morgan, Brig'r. Gen'l. & Is. Huger, Br. Gen'l. All which are most respectfully submitted to the war department.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.
