NOTE: On 11 Aug 1838 Lydia Chilcott, 78, applied for a pension stating that she married Elihu Chilcott about the year 1788, and he died in May 1831. Rachel Wilson, 69, deposed that Lydia Payne called upon a sister of hers to "wait upon her" at her marriage to Elihu Chilcott. The file contains a letter dated 15 Apr 1839 apparently written by Lydia Chilcott to her agent inquiring whether she could obtain the pension money and stating that she would "like to get it as quick as possible for [she was] verry needy at this time." On 19 June 1843 Lydia Chilcott, 83, applied under a later pension act
