NOTE:

On 29 Feb 1844 Sarah Edwards, 80, applied for a pension stating that she was married by a minister named Douglas in Louisa County on 27 Dec 1781 to Solomon Edwards, who died on 27 Jan 1844. The Douglas Register kept by Rev. William Douglas (W. F. Jones, Ed. Baltimore: Clearfield Co.,

2001) lists the following: "Edwards, Solomon & Sarah Mathews, both of Louisa 1782, Dec: 27." Sarah Edwards also stated that she was not married before her husband's last actual service, and that they moved from Louisa County to Clarke County in 1804. On 30 April 1844 Sarah Edwards stated that she was married in 1783, and also incorrectly stated that her husband had served in the militia of North Carolina. She stated that John Matthews of Fayette County GA and Samuel Harris of Butts County GA had witnessed the marriage. On 9 Jan 1845 Sarah Edwards stated that she was "not certain that her memory serves her to the precise date of marriage."

John Matthews, 77, stated that the marriage took place in 1781. On 3 Dec 1844 Samuel Harris of Monroe County GA stated that the marriage occurred "sometime in December 1782." Harris also made the following statement:

Be it known that on this 19th day of November 1845 before me Isaac State of Georgia } Monroe County } Ferguson a Justice of the Peace in and for said County personally appeared Samuel Harris a resident of said County and State and being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following statements That according to his understanding and belief he was born in Louisa County Virginia on the 5th day of February 1770 That he was personally acquainted with Solomon Edwards who was a Soldier in the War of the Revolution as he always understood and believes and Sarah Matthews before they were married That they were legally married in said County and State soon after the Close of Hostilities and before Peace was ratified in 1783 and that he witnessed the marriage ceremony. That he deponent lived with his Grand Father in said County and State the year seventeen hundred and eighty three & four, and the said Solomon was overseering the same years for his said Father [sic] and in September that same year thir first Child was born And in the year seventeen hundred and ninety six deponent removed to Georgia at which time their eldest son was large enough for a plough boy. That he was acquainted with the said Solomon and Sarah after they removed to Clark County Georgia and was informed that the said Solomon was in the receipt of a pension from the United States for his revolutionary services at the time of his death that he died leaving the said Sarah his widow Sumuel Harris

The file contains a letter from John H. Kilgore to James Edwards stating that he had finished preparing the application papers for Edwards's mother.
