War Department/ Pension Office/ Jan'y. 23rd 1822

Sir [Stephen Howard, Swanton VT], It is stated in a letter to this Department that you deserted from the Virginia Line of the Army, in the year 1778 and entered into the British service. If such be the fact, you can no longer receive a pension. Until it be satisfactorily proved, that the statement is erroneous, your pension will be suspended.

By order of the Secretary of War. I am, respectfully,/ Yr. Obt. Sert./ J L Edwards [Chief Pension Clerk]

Swanton Vt February 12th 1822

I Stephen Howard of Lawful age do testify and say that in the spring of 1778 I was doing duty as a private soldier in the first Maryland regiment at Philadelphia, in the fore part of the summer I was sent from there with hessian prisoners to Elizabeth town New Jersey from thence I was sent to West Point where I remained under Lieut Hugo [possibly Thomas B. Hugo W9328] till the spring of 79 when I was sent to buttermilk falls where I remained till fall and then Marched to Morristown for winter quarters and as soon as our hutts were done we (the Maryland line) were ordered to march to Charlestown South Carolina we proceeded on our March as far as Cambden where on the 16th of August 1780 I was wounded & taken prisoner by the British, after I was taken prisoner I was conveyed to charlestown and put on board a British Prison Ship and from thence I was Pressed on board a man of War, with four more American soldiers, from whence I escaped by desertion I further testify and say that I never enlisted into the service of the British nor did I ever desert from the American Service

Sir [Secretary of War] Accompanying this is the letter of Duclas [Francis Duclos] which [undeciphered word] Stephen Howards being suspended from the pension roll, and Howards evidence forwarded with a view of doing away the effects of that letter. I hope you will have the goodness to examine them when other more important business will permit. I will only add that Howards character to say the least, stands as fair as Duclas's and while the latter seems to discover the mote in his neighbors eye

he forgets the beame in his own this same Duclass lost his property and became poor by violating the laws of his Country In 1815 he was convicted fined & imprisoned for driving or attempting to drive fat Cattle into Canada during the war and released from his imprisonment by the interposition of the President. my knowledge of either party extends back but a few years

To the Hon. Secretary at War

Your humble petitioner representeth to your Honour that under the late law of the United States, allowing a pension to the soldiers of the revolutionary War your petitioner was placed on the pension list and for a time received his pension – but since that time your petitioner received from the War department a letter informing him, that it had been represented to that department, that your petitioner was a deserter from the American forces in the year 1778. This charge is untrue, false & cruel coming from a source to me secret & unknown. And had not Old Age crept upon me, and wholly destitute of pecuniary means I could look up some of my comrads in the army who could prove every word I herein after state.

In the year 1776 I lived with my Paents in Leonardstown [Leonardtown] in the State of Maryland when I enlisted as a soldier for the term of three years or dureing the War under one Capt. [John] Lynch of whose company one Hackett was Lieutenant, and immediately went into service. As Capt. Lynch was a recruiting Officer I was put into Capt. Roxbourgh's Comp'y from this time I was often entrusted by my officers to go in the recruiting service and dureing the fall of 1776 and year 1777 was at Port Tobacco, Anapolis, Baltimore & at the head of the Elk [now Elkton MD] where we were billeted out. In the spring of 1778 was at Philadelphia from where on routs to one place & another we were marched to Newburgh – from thence by New Windsor where we took boats to West Point from thence we were marched to a place call Butter Milk falls where the Maryland line lay dureing that season. Our General Officers at this time were Gen'l. Putnam & Gen'l. Smallwood. I was often detached on duty to Assist in building Block houses at West Point under one Lieut Hugo who acted as engineer. After this that part of the Army to which I belonged was order to march to Morristown in New Jersey for Win[ter] quarters which we effected altho almost destitute of shoes & clothing through bad roa[ds] & deep snows. Shortly after we had comple[ted] our huts, we received orders to march to reinforce Charleston in South Carolina which was besieged by Cornwallis. We immediate[ly] marched to the head of the Elk, where we were put into boats and went to Anapolis where we took in provisions and from thence proceded to Petersburgh [sic: Petersburg] in Virginia – from thence we marched to a place called Parson's Farm [21 Jun 1780] in North Carolina – at this place Gen'l. Gates who then commanded ordered a halt to refresh the teams which were much worn down by drawing the Artillery. At this place we received information that Charlston was given up [12 May 1780] even severall of the Officers Ladies with their baggage passed us at this place. From this we marched to a place called Roodsleys Mills [sic: Rugeley's Mills about 12 mi N of Camden] in South Carolina where a halt was ordered and shortly Gen'l. Gates issued an order (on the 15th August) that at nine oclock in the night instead of the tatoo the Generale should be beat [see endnote], and that every soldier should divest himself of all baggage, his gun, cartouch box & cantine of water excepted - in the night we marched about half way to Camden where we met the enemy near a place called Gum Swamp a skirmish ensued with the advance guards the next morning a general action took place the Americans were defeated. Gen'l. De Calve [sic: Baron De Kalb] was mortally wounded. Capt Lynch under whom I enlisted Lieut. Herchel[?] & Capt Roxbourgh under whom I was among many others were taken prisioners – the officers were paroled, but the privates were retained as prisioners – in this action I received a wound in my leg was carried prisioner to Charlston, and then put on board of a Prision Ship where I remained seven months from thence was carried to the West Indies and pressed on board of a Brittish Man of War from which I made my escape to the shore but was again taken & put into the land service, and there kept 13 years until a favourable opportunity arrived when stationed on Lake Champlain I left his Majesty's service for my native country. I arrived into the State of Vermont where I have since resided except that dureing the late War I enlisted into the 11th regiment under the late Colo. [Isaac] Clark of Vermont and was appointed an Orderly Sergeant and served dureing the war, when I was ordered to Springfield from thence to New York when (being advanced in years) at my request discharged I could have been much more particular as to minor circumstances & events but thot not best to waste your Excellencys time.

I would now ask your Excellency how it is possible I could have deserted in the year 1778 when I am able to state where I was, the march of the troops, their different stations until their arrival at Camden in August AD 1780?

No may it please your Excellency I never was absent from my company for three years & 11 months unless on the recruiting service or on fatigue – nor guilty of desertion unless leaving the Brittish into whose service I had been pressed after 13 years detention to return to my own country is desertion I believe it was stated that I deserted from the Virginia line. I would observe that I was never in or saw the Virginia line until I was a prisioner in Charlston but was allways in Capt. Roxbourghs Comp'ny of the Maryland line.

Is it not possible that Stephen Howard who is represented to have deserted is another person than me.

I therefore humbly pray your Excellency to replace me on the pension list from which I have been suspended by reason of missrepresentations to your department Stephen How are

As in duty shall every pray –

I Lawrence Brow of North Hero in the County of Grand isle Do testify & say that I was in the British service in the A.D. 1780 at Charlestown South carolina that in the same year Stephen Howard now living in Swanton was Brot in then a prisoner from the American Service that I understood he was taken at Camden, that I went with the s'd Stephen from thence to fort Augusta in the Island of Jamacia where I left the s'd Stephen a prisoner.

To the Legislature of the State of Maryland

The Petition of Stephen Howard a resident of Chazy in the State of New York respectfully sheweth.

That your Petitioner is now seventy five years of age and was born in the town of Leonard St.

Mary's County Maryland on the fourteenth day of June 1758. Your Petitioner had a record of his age in his bible made more than forty eight years ago which record was burnt with his house at Swanton Vt. in 1816. Your Petitioner has now a record of his age in his bible made in that year. Your Petitioner further sheweth that he resided at Leonard in the State of Maryland and enlisted at that place on the seventeenth day of September 1776 as a private into Capt Roxburg's Company (Capt Lynch was the recruiting officer who enlisted him) Col. Smallwoods first Maryland Regiment for three years or during the war. That your Petitioner served in said Company and Regiment four years (less thirty one days) and until August 16th 1780 when he was wounded in battle at Camden South Carolina (at the time of Gen'l Gates defeat) and was taken a Prisoner of war by the British Troops under Lord Cornwallis. Your Petitioner was carried prisoner of war to Charleston South Carolina and remained on board a British Prison ship until March 1781 seven months & fourteen days, was taken from thence to Kingston in the West Indies and there kept on board a British vessel for three years and was taken from thence to Halifax, thence to Quebec, thence to St. Johns, from which latter place your Petitioner affected his escape on the sixteenth day of April 1786 & came into the United States, where he has ever since resided. He was placed on the Pension Roll of the New York agency in the year 1819 since which time he has received his Pension. That he enlisted under the promise and expectation of receiving two hundred acres of land from the state of Maryland, but your Petitioner has never received any land whatever from the United States or from the State of Maryland or any equivalent therefor, (There was due to your Petitioner at the time he was taken prisoner seven months arrearages of pay which he has never received) In the year 1832 your Petitioner caused a Petition to the Legislature of Maryland to be drawn up and forwarded to George G Brewer Esq Register of the land office Annapolis from which your Petitioner has received no returns.

Your Petitioner insists that he is entitled to receive from the State of Maryland the same quantity of land which has been granted to Soldiers of the Maryland line, and that the facts set forth by your Petitioner explain the reason why your Petitioners name was not returned with those entitled to land. Your Petitioner therefore prays your honorable body to pass a law for his relief authorising him to receive from the State of Maryland a grant of two hundred acres of land on account of his revolutionary services or for such other relief as to your honorable body shall deem proper to grant And will ever pray &c Dated Chazy N.Y Sept. 14 1833

That she is the widow of Stephen Howard who was a private in the first Maryland Continental Regiment, and served therein as she is informed and believes for more than three years. She has heard him say that he was enlisted at Leonard Maryland in Sept 1776 into Col Smallwoods first Maryland Regt. for three years or during the war, and that he served in that Company & Regiment four years less one month, and while in such service, and engaged in the battle of Camden, he was wounded and taken a prisoner by the Enemy, and carried to Charleston South Carolina, and put on board a British Prison Ship, where he remained until March 1781 seven months and a half, when he was taken to Kingston in the West Indies, and remained there about three years. During said time, viz on some day of June in the year seventeen hundred and eighty four [sic] at the place aforesaid she the said Elizabeth was married to the said Stephen Howard by a Bishop whose name she does not recollect. He gave her a Certificate of marriage which she kept until the month of October 1833 when it was burnt, and destroyed by fire together with her dwelling house at Chazy aforesaid. She also had a record of her said marriage in her family bible which was likewise burnt at the time & place aforesaid. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Ray. In the year 1786 her said husband effected his escape from the British and came into the United States where he resided up to the period of his death. She further declares that her said Husband was a pensioner under the act of March 18, 1818 at $96 per annum, and placed on the Roll of the Vermont agency in 1819 and afterwards transferred to the New York agency. He went on a visit from his residence in Chazy to Hemmingford Lower Canada and died there at the House of his son on the sixth day of March 1843 leaving the said Elizabeth Howard a widow, and she still remains a widow & unmarried.

She further declares that she has no record of her husbands service nor of her marriage, and that her marriage took place previous to January 1, 1794 viz at the time above stated.

NOTES:

Stephen Howard is documented as having been one of about 500 who enlisted into the British Duke of Cumberland's Regiment to escape the appalling conditions in which American prisoners were held. Howard is recorded being 18 and in the prison barracks at the time. This regiment left Charleston on 24 May 1781 and arrived on the Island of Jamaica on the following 18 August. See http://revwarapps.org/b406.pdf for details. After the war Howard served in the British 60th (Royal American) Regiment of Foot on Jamaica, as shown by a record of his marriage to Elizabeth Wray "spinster" on 16 Feb 1786, with permission of his colonel. https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:939F-DZXX-Y?i=90&cc=1827268

The Montreal chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is named for Francis Duclos. For more information on his services for the Americans in the Revolutionary War and for the British in the War of 1812 see http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~canfddar/francisduclosdar/ and http://www.warof1812.ca/patriotstraitors.htm. In his defense against Duclos's accusation, Jonathan Danforth presented proof that he had so little property that he had been jailed as a debtor for five weeks late in 1821 and at other times. In 1811, seven years before the first pension law, Danforth deeded 135 acres to David J. Danforth and Jonathan R. Danforth. A letter in Danforth's file indicates that because of Duclos's accusation, the War Department deprived Danforth of his pension for at least a year and perhaps permanently. For other examples of veterans being denied pensions based on unsworn accusations, see my appendix to the pension application of David W. Sleeth S6111.

According to http://www.fifedrum.org/crfd/CRFD6.htm, the Tattoo was beat at 9:00 PM only in the fall and winter and at 10:00 PM in spring and summer. Most accounts state that the Americans began their march south from Rugeley's Mills at 10 PM. The General was the signal to prepare to march.

Like Howard, Francis Delong is also documented as having enlisted into the Duke of Cumberland's Regiment. See http://revwarapps.org/b406.pdf

Details of Stephen Howard's service in the War of 1812 are in the following obituary discovered by Betty Rabideau of West Chazy NY:

Susanna Howard Brow January 1802 – February 1897

Obituary – St. Albans Weekly Messenger Thursday February 28, 1897 Mrs. John Brow died February 7th at the advanced age of 95 years. Mrs. Brow was born in Swanton and always lived here. Her father, Stephen Howard, came from Virginia at the time of the Revolutionary War, serving as a soldier. He acted as a recruiting Sergeant in 1812-14 and took part in the Battle of Plattsburgh [NY, 11 Sep 1814]. At that time, his family was in the barracks in Burlington, and Mrs. Brow up to a short time before her death was able to recall events of those striving times. John Brow, then a boy of 16, carried passengers between North Hero and Plattsburgh at the time of the Battle of Plattsburgh and was captured and held prisoner.

Mrs. Brow had 13 children, 7 of whom are living. Two of them served in the Civil War: B. F. Brow and Charles Brow, the latter being killed at Cold Harbor. The Howard homestead use to be what is now known as the Cushman place on the St. Albans Road.

Mr. Stanley officiated at Mrs. Brow's funeral. She is buried in the Woods Hill Cemetery in Swanton with her husband, John M. Brow (born Apr. 19, 1798, died Feb. 12, 1889).

On 28 May 1830 Stephen Howard applied to have his pension transferred to New York, having moved to Clinton County for the following reason: "that my Children have all removed thither and I wish to be with them."

On 3 Mar 1845 Jane McNamara of Hemmingford, Québec, deposed in support of the application of her mother, Elizabeth Howard, stating that she herself was born 24 Oct 1794 in North River VT. On 21 Sep 1845 her husband, Asa McNamara, stated that he and Jane McNamara were married in 1818 in Alburg VT.

Correspondence in the file indicates that as proof of marriage a Testament containing a family record written by Stephen Howard had been sent to the Pension Office.

On 18 April 1849 Elizabeth Howard applied to have her pension transferred to Iowa, having moved to Mendon in Clayton County "to live with her daughter."

A letter dated 22 Mar 1880 refers to a granddaughter, Mrs. Benjamin Chesbrough of Beekmantown NY.
