[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of South Carolina Sumter District:

Personally appeared before me Frances Anderson widow of John Anderson of Bradleyville Sumter District, who being duly sworn, deposeth that the annexed record of Births, Marriages & Deaths -- was at her request in the year 1817 copied by Matthew E. Maldrow (my son-in-law) and is a true copy from the original, which was in my possession at that time, Except so much as that which relates to the death of Rebecca Shaw which is in my own handwriting -- the Original Family record has since been lost, supposed to have been destroyed by fire, when my son-in-law's house (Matthew E. Muldrow) was burnt in the year 1829.

[p 11] State of South Carolina Sumter District

On this 11th day of May 1842 Personally appeared before the undersigned, Mrs. Frances Anderson widow, aged Seventy-eight years, a resident of Bradleyville, Sumter District, South Carolina, who being duly sworn, according to law, doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to be entitled to the benefit of the 3rd Section of the act of Congress of the 4th July 1836, and the act explanatory of said act passed 3rd March 1857. That she was married to John McBride deceased formerly of Williamsburg District near Kingstree in said State, who was a private and an officer in the War of the Revolution, that he entered the Service in the year 1779 as a private in a Corps of Infantry called the Kingstree Company, under the command of Captains Plowden [Edward Plowden] and Hamilton, attached to the Regiment of James's [perhaps Major John James'] Command and afterwards as she believes commanded by Col. Horry [Lieutenant Colonel Peter Horry or perhaps Lt. Col. Hugh Horry], Marion's Francis Marion's] Brigade. Deponent saith that she has reason to believe, he served at the Fights of Black Swamp or Battle at Shubrick's, South of Charleston; White Marsh in North Carolina, Black River, and Eutaw [sic Eutaw South Carolina; Georgetown, Santee and Eutaw [sic Eutaw South Carolina; Georgetown, Santee and Eutaw South Carolina; Georgetown, Santee and Eutaw [sic Eutaw South Carolina; Georgetown, Santee and Eutaw South Caro Springs, September 8, 1781].⁴ He was also one of 38 men under Major Postell, who captured 11 British Baggage Wagons at Keithfield, and at other places not now remembered by deponent. This deponent saith that her said Husband John McBride served in this War 15 months as a private, deponent saith that in the year 1780 -- and as she believes in the month of August upon the occasion of Capt. Hamilton, then commanding the Kingstree company going over to the Tories, James Witherspoon was appointed Capt., and deponent's husband John McBride was Commissioned a Lieut. in said company and in that Capacity, she believes he served to the end of the War. Deponent saith that she was married to John McBride on the 27th of March 1781, as will also be shown from an extract herewith sent, taken from the Registry in the Family Bible. That she was married at the House of Robert Dick below Kingstree, having to ride some 12 miles that morning to meet the Rev. Mr. Hill of the Presbyterian Church, at that place who performed the marriage ceremony and after which this deponent returned the same evening to her Mother's House, where the rest of the wedding party were assembled. Deponent saith that John McBride was in the service when they were married, and continued in the same until the close of the war. Deponent saith that her Husband John McBride died the night January 1791, aged 33 Years. Deponent saith that she married John Anderson 30th of April 1793 and that said John Anderson died 19th April 1805, and that she is now, and has remained a widow ever since the death of the said John Anderson. Deponent saith that she is at this time, and has been for a considerable length of time in very feeble health, that there is no Judge residing within less than 30 miles of her residence. Deponent saith that there is but only 2 persons, whom she believes are now living, by whom she could more fully approve her marriage with John McBride, and they are both (if living) residing at a considerable distance from her present residence; And in conclusion deponent saith that she has no other documentary evidence but what is herewith sent. Deponent saith that she would have made this claim before, but that being ignorant of the Provisions of the Law and of the Mode of Application. Her brother Philip Moore gave her at length the necessary information, and hopes the department will make allowance for the nature of her residence in the interior, and the difficulty of obtaining Testimony at this late day. Deponent saith that her son Samuel McBride was born 27th of April 1782, and is now in his 60th year.

State of South Carolina District of Charleston: On this 23rd day of February 1842 personally appeared before me, Philip Moore, a resident of Dorchester Colleton District South Carolina aged 73 years, who being duly sworn according to law Deposeth that he is the brother of Frances Anderson widow of Bradleyville Sumter District South Carolina that, she is now 78 years of age, and is an applicant for a pension as the widow of John McBride who served in the war of the revolution, -- Deponent saith, that his sister was married to the said John McBride at their mother's house in the Williamsburg District South Carolina by a Presbyterian Minister in the year (as Deponent believes) 1780, Deponent saith that at the time of said marriage he knows said John McBride was in the Service under arms as a private in the Kingstree Company of infantry commanded as Deponent believes by Capt. Hamilton and Hamilton having succeeded Capt. Plowden, and that this said Company was attached to the Battalion commanded by James, which formed a part of General Marion's Brigade. Deponent saith that he has reason to believe said John McBride served in the Capacity of a private in said Corps at least 12 months to wit from and previous to August 1779 to August 1780 when Gates was defeated by the British at Camden in South Carolina; Deponent saith that, he recollects well that said Capt. Hamilton of said Kingstree Company abandoned the cause of the Americans and joined the Tories, whereupon Deponent remembers, that James Witherspoon was appointed Capt. and said John McBride Lieut. of said Kingstree Company and served as such in said Corps under arms until the end of the War. Deponent saith that the facts here detailed are founded on Deponent's own personal knowledge. Deponent recollects being three several times at the Camp of Marion and seeing said John McBride in the service during the period here referred to, first when the said encampment was at Kingstree, 2nd on the day of the Engagement between General Marion and Watson at the lower Bridge Black River, and 3rd when Marion was in Georgetown South Carolina a few days after the British evacuated the same, Deponent saith he was too young to bear arms, but was in the habit of visiting the Camp and seeing his brother-in-law the said John McBride. In this way Deponent saith, said McBride was in the Service at least 2 years. Deponent saith his impression is that said McBride was present with the brigade at Black River Georgetown, Pedee, Kingstree, Santee and Eutaw [Springs], that said McBride was born about the year 1755, and died about the year 1790, Deponent saith that said John McBride left one son Mr. Samuel McBride now residing at said the Bradleyville Sumter District South Carolina born in 1780 or 1781 and is therefore about 61 years of age. Deponent saith, his said sister Mrs.

Frances McBride married about the year 1795 John Anderson who died about the year 1803 or 1804 and that said Frances has remained a widow ever since, Deponent saith the reason his said sister had not applied previous to this time for a pension was entirely owing to the fact of her ignorance of the law making a provision for persons in her situation, nor did she know it, until informed of same by this Deponent, last November. Deponent saith that his said sister is known and esteemed in her neighborhood as a reparable married lady whose statements are entitled to him place it credit. Deponent was born 1 September 1768.

South Carolina Sumter District: On this 9th Day of June A.D. 1842 Personally appeared before the undersigned William McIntosh⁵ of Salem County and District of Sumter Aged 78 years Port Master of Salem SC for 35 years and a Revolutionary Pensioner, who being duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath Certify that, he was personally acquainted with John McBride, who was a soldier in the revolutionary War. Deponent saw him frequently doing duty in Marion's Brigade in the year 1781 & 1782. Deponent has reason to believe said John McBride was with Deponent at the taking of a British Fort at Scott's Lake on the Santee & at the taking of Fort Motte. Deponent saw said John McBride at the taking of Georgetown and deponent saw him at several encampments with General Marion on the Santee and elsewhere, from the great length of time since these transactions were performed I cannot bring to my recollection all the places I might have seen Mr. McBride doing duty in the revolutionary War. Deponent joined Marion early in the year 1781; I think it was in the latter part of March or first of April, it was since that time that I saw John McBride performing the Services which are stated to the best of my recollection as above, I believe said McBride was serving as a private when I first joined Marion's Brigade in last of March or first of April 1781, and I have reason to believe he served a considerable time previous, to my joining Marion; that, he served under General Moultrie at Black Swamp in 1778, that he was with Marion when Col. Watson attempted to cross the Lower Bridge below the Kings Tree, I have reason to believe that John McBride joined General Marion in September 1780 and continued to serve under him as private until the latter part of the year 1781, which could not be less than 15 months, he served as a private in the latter part of 1781, there was a Regiment of regular state troops raised and Mr. McBride was commissioned in said Regiment, and continued to serve as an officer during the war. Sworn to before me the day and year above written -- I do Certify the Credibility of the Affiant S/ P. S. Worsham, Mag.
